

Council Corner

Challenging year coming to a close for council, but with hope and happiness

Mayor, Council and staff wish residents, businesses, first responders, clubs and organizations a happy holiday

2021 is nearing its end, and as we get closer to a new year, it only seems fitting we reflect on the happenings over the last 12 months.

The past year has seen great change in our community, province and globally. Community events have slowly begun to return to Tofield. However different, it has brought back a sense of excitement and community focus. Many projects were able to be accomplished to provide community betterment, such as the walking path extension, to name just one.

We continue to see the presence of the COVID 19 pandemic, however there is a belief that there is light on the horizon. Although there is still a great deal of work to take place, which requires each of us to remain vigilant in our approaches, we have become better at adapting to change and finding ways to mitigate against community spread.

Our local businesses have been forced to adapt, shift, and become exceptionally creative in navigating the ever-changing waters. To each of our local businesses, our first responders, and our essential service workers, we say thank you to each of you. Your work has been difficult beyond measure; however, you have never faltered in your desire to serve your community.

2021 also saw an election year, Mayor and Council welcome Norm Martineau and look forward to his voice and contributions over the next 4 years. The next 4 years sees the necessity for work to continue in our community to have Tofield remain at the forefront for communities our size and larger.

As 2021 draws to a close and we prepare for the holiday season, Mayor and Council wish each of you a season filled with happiness, health, and positive reflection. We wish each of you well for 2022 and look forward to serving the community and the electorate in 2022.

*Respectfully,
Mayor and Council*
